Newsletter - January 2013

I want to thank everyone for the positive response to my December newsletter - cool! I would also like to wish each and every one of you a happy, healthy and successful new year. While 2012 was a difficult year for me personally, it was a very exciting and rewarding year for me professionally. I greatly appreciate all of the positive feedback and support from all of you - it has really helped me to keep pushing on and trying to make the most of each day, one day at a time...and to quote Hugh Prather: "Don't spend one second chewing on a mistake. It's a meatless bone." Thanks again and happy new year to all!

HUMBLEBRAG: Thanks to everyone who braved a cold, rainy night to witness the debut of Humblebrag, my new project with my Jukes bandmate and saxman extraordinaire John Isley. Me, John, drummer Adam Jackson and organist Mark Minchello had a great time jammin' and are looking forward to the continuing growth of the music and the artistic rewards it will bring. We'll have more gigs down the road, but in the meantime, John recorded some, if not all, of our set that night, so you can check out our live debut on our band's YouTube channel.....

NORTHERN LIGHT: My newest release, "Northern Light," continues to get some great press. For those of you not familiar with this project, it was recorded in 1991 with my good friend Scott Healy, keyboardist on the Conan O'Brien show. In a review appearing on the All About Jazz website, writer Dan Bilawsky referred to the guitar work on Christmas Day as "ideas that defy any time, place or style." He goes on to call the cut November "a revelation of beauty." You can check out the full review here. This release is available through iTunes.....

FORCE 5: Remember the project with Dave LaRue I talked about last month? Well, in a couple of weeks, I'll be heading to Florida to put the finishing touches on our album which is now called "Force 5." It features me, Dave, Van Romaine, Shawn Pelton, Mike Mancini, Dru Betts and possibly some other special guests. All of the material - except for a cover of a Beatles tune - is original and written by yours truly and Dave LaRue. This is a project I'm really proud of and very excited about. It will be released later this year. I will keep you posted.....

DA JUKES! January is a very busy month with The Jukes - heading on a road trip to Florida and looking forward to an all-request show with Southside at the one and only LEGENDARY Stone Pony in February. Hope to see all of you there.....

KEEP IN TOUCH: Don't forget to connect with me via my website and via my Facebook page.....
