Newsletter - March 2013

Once again, thanks so much for coming to the shows and the kind words and support - it really means a lot to me and all of the other musicians. Having said that, if you find this newsletter annoying and don't want to receive it, please reply with "remove" and it will be done. As my good friend Anthony from Boulevard Pro Sound says, "Showbiz...here today, gone later today." Ya gotta love it. Okay, hope to see you along the journey.....

HUMBLEBRAG: The gig at Sarah Lawrence College was killin' and John Isley and I are working on some new material and will hopefully have a bunch of new dates coming up this spring. We're very excited about this collaboration and can't wait to share it with you. Please check out our YouTube channel to see what we're all about.....

FORCE 5: All of the recording is finished and we are excited to be mixing this month. Dave LaRue and I are reaching out to some agents and labels to try and get it out ASAP, as well as booking some performance dates. We'll keep you informed along the way.....

DA JUKES: Wow, things have been wild in Jukesville lately! We had a great four-show swing through Florida last month and we found out that Tampa Bay Bucs coach - and Jersey boy - Greg Schiano is a big Jukes fan. He and his wife came backstage to say hi and get a dose of the "Jukes from New Jersey." It was great to meet him and hang a bit, but I wouldn't want to tangle with that dude - I think he is solid steel. We also played to great crowds in North Carolina and New Jersey. But, I think the highlight for all of us was playing two sold-out shows at the legendary Stone Pony. Those were the hottest, sweat-iest shows, but the crowd was on fire and Southside was the one who lit the flame. We played a ton of songs we hadn't ever played and I think the band had even more fun than the fans. Thanks to everyone for coming out. March is also shaping up to be busy, with stops in New Jersey, New Hampshire, Illinois, Michigan and another gig in Florida. Check out the tour dates below or go to the Jukes website for details.....

NORTHERN LIGHT: My latest release with Scott Healy continues to get some great reviews, including one in Jazz Weekly, which calls the music "warm and spontaneous." Improvi-jazzation Nation says the guitar work is "fantastic" and gives the CD a "most highly recommended" rating, while, allacousticmusic.com calls the music "airy" and "lush". Click on the links to see the full reviews and remember Northern Light is available on iTunes.....

YELLOW PAINT: Check out the great reviews and airplay my daughter Oria is getting in Europe for her debut CD, Yellow Paint. Go to the "News and Reviews" page on her website to see how Oria is conquering Europe! You can also order her great CD here.....
