NEWSLETTER - AUGUST 2013

Hey folks, summer just got here and now its counting down with only one more month to go - how the hell did that happen?!? Got some great gigs this month at 78 Below with Humblebrag and the New York Horns, and, of course, lots more dates with The Jukes. I really hope I get to see y'all before September and the insanity of the fall. Enjoy the warmth of August, make the most of it, have some fun and while you're at it, c'mon out and have some fun with us musos.....rock on!!!

DA JUKES: July was a busy month for the Jukes, and it seemed like we played everywhere. Particularly memorable was our annual swing through New England during the worst heat wave in recent memory. Those shows were hot - in more ways than one! The Jukes also played one of our best shows ever at the Infinity Theatre in northern Connecticut. It was a funky little hall that looked like an old church. And, like the wise preacher he is, Southside had the enthusiastic crowd in the palm of his hand as he testified to the power of rock and roll. We finished up the month opening for the great Leon Russell in Westbury. August will have us playing a few outdoor shows in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Syracuse, as well as some beautiful little theaters in Ridgefield and Beach Haven. Hope some of you catch a show or two, because there's nothin' like seeing the Jukes in the summertime.....

HUMBLEBRAG: Thanks to everyone for coming out to see Humblebrag. My Jukes brother, John Isley and I are really excited about this band and look forward to continuing our residency at 78 Below in New York City. We'll be there one Wednesday each month. And this month, we're going to start recording our first CD. We're really hittin' a groove and hope you'll check out our YouTube channel and like us on Facebook.....

NEW YORK HORNS: Another project John and I are heading - along with our fellow Juke, Chris Anderson - is the New York Horns. Like Humblebrag, we'll be playing once a month at 78 Below. It's an amazing lineup of musicians - including Shawn Pelton, Neal Pawley, Tony Tino, Rusty Cloud and others - and we just have too much fun together. This group has some serious chops and we hope you'll join us. It's a late start for a weeknight (10pm), but play hooky the next day - we'll write a note to your boss! C'mon out - a good time is guaranteed! Also, please "like" us on Facebook.....

ETC: Coming soon: a new venture of mine - G Picks. These picks are handmade, tortoise-shell guitar picks. Crafted from the shells of western painted land turtles - NOT the illegal sea turtles - these picks are really beautiful and last forever, unlike plastic picks. They will be available very soon through my website, so stay tuned.....

AND DON'T FORGET: Please check out my website and "like" me on Facebook. Oh, and I know I keep saying this, but my brand new website really is coming soon!!! Please stay tuned - I think you'll see it was worth the wait.....
