NEWSLETTER - SEPTEMBER 2013

What a fantastic summer! But now it's over and I'm lookin' forward to fall, with the cooler temperatures and all the amazing colors. September is light on the gig front, which is actually good, because it allows more time to focus on other things, like recording and starting the new semester at Sarah Lawrence College. Some news: 78 Below - the NYC club that has played host to both Humblebrag and the New York Horns - is struggling to stay afloat, so I want to encourage everyone to please come and hang with us at this fine music club. Also, I'll be playing another great benefit for folks whose lives were torn apart by Hurricane Sandy. Come help raise money to rebuild homes, businesses and lives. Thanks y'all for everything, and I hope to see you in September.

HUMBLEBRAG: Well, after some really great gigs this summer, Humblebrag has gone into the studio! That's right, we've started recording our first CD and we're very excited about it. We have some original material and some cover tunes and we're hoping to have a new CD available early next year. We're also working on getting a bunch of fall tour dates, so stay tuned. In the meantime, you can "get yer soul on" by ordering a new Humblebrag t-shirt! They're 100 percent cotton and 100 percent cool! In the true spirit of Humblebrag, you'll be saying: "It's SO exhausting having everyone tell me how awesome I look in my Humblebrag t-shirt!" The shirts will be available very soon on my NEW website and on the Humblebrag Facebook page. And don't forget to check out our YouTube channel for new videos.....

NEW YORK HORNS: I want to thank everyone who came out to the New York Horns gigs this summer. It's a big, loud, crazy band with a lineup of kick-ass musicians - my fellow Jukes Chris Anderson, John Isley, Jeff Kazee and Neal Pawley, as well as former/sometimes Jukes Shawn Pelton and Tony Tino. Every single musician brings something special to the party, and what a party it is! We're heading into the studio this month and have our regular gig at 78 Below on September 18th. Please keep checking the New York Horns Facebook page for all the latest information.....

DA JUKES: After a wild, busy summer, the Jukes are taking a little breather this month, and only have a couple of gigs in September. But, watch out in October - we start to ramp it up then! And, as you know, anything Jukes is a blast, so make sure to check the tour dates.....

ETC: I am proud and honored to announce that I will be playing solo guitar for my parents' art show reception in Wichita, Kansas, on September 27th. The reception will be from 3-5pm at Wichita Presbyterian Manor, 4700 West 13th Street, Wichita. The Leland and Shirley Alexander "Art Is Ageless" exhibit will run from September 9-30. Both of my parents are really extraordinarily gifted artists and it is sure to be a very special day for my family. Hope to see some of my Kansas friends there.....

AND DON'T FORGET: My NEW website will be ready ANY DAY now and it's really pretty incredible. Lots of info packed into that site! So, please keep checking out my Facebook page for the big announcement on the launch.....
