

GLENN ALEXANDER

GUITARIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

NEWSLETTER - OCTOBER 2013

Hey Folks, October is here and I'm still going at it.....who would a thunk it? Been busy as hell with college back in session, recordings and gigs. Feel extremely fortunate to be a part of it all and able to record, teach and play alongside so many extraordinarily talented people. Very excited about my new website and YouTube channel, as well as my new tortoise shell picks. Hope you get a chance to check in, check it all out and come say hi at one of the gigs. October is such a beautiful month and a great time of the year. Enjoy every moment!! Happy Halloween y'all!!!

ETC.: Was back in the homeland, Wichita, Kansas, for my parents' (left, with me and my brother and his family, and below right) art show and reception, where I played solo guitar. It was an amazing turnout and so fantastic to see so many patrons of the arts, family members and friends - including some folks I haven't seen in decades! The show itself was very successful with many pieces sold and a drawing that sent two lucky people home with paintings. Art really IS ageless and alive and well in Wichita and beyond. A huge thank you to everyone for coming and making it a really special day... On October 10th, I'll be playing a show with my buds from the Conan show, LaBamba and Mark Pender. And even though it's a private gig, we're all really excited to be playing in NYC together again... After a bit of a break, I'll be headed to Florida later this month to finish mixing the Force 5 CD, my project with bassist Dave LaRue... I was pleased to play at the Sandy Ground Benefit last month. It's a great cause and I got a chance to hang the with great singer-songwriter - and my very good buddy - Arlan Feiles (below, far right) and...who exactly is that guy in the middle?.....

DA JUKES: After a relatively quiet month gig-wise, the Jukes are ready to ramp it up again in October. We have a bunch of dates in Ohio - always one of our favorite places to play - as well as New Jersey and Maryland. We're ready to rock and I can't wait to get back to playing with these cats! Make sure to check the tour schedule for all the latest dates.....

NEW YORK HORNS: Man, I love this band! After a handful of shows at 78 Below in NYC, we've gone into the studio to put some of this craziness on tape! Our shows are loud, loose jams and I can't imagine the audience could have more fun than we are up on the stage. I think you know the lineup by now - Chris Anderson, John Isley, Neal Pawley, Jeff Kazee, Shawn Pelton and Tony Tino - and what a talented bunch of musicians they are! We'll be at 78 Below again this month on Wednesday the 16th and I encourage everyone to come out and support us, as well as this funky club, which is having some financial troubles. Please keep checking the New York Horns Facebook page for all the latest information.....

HUMBLEBRAG: There aren't any dates planned right now, but there's a lot going on behind the scenes with Humblebrag. We're recording and planning an East Coast tour, so keep checking our Facebook page and YouTube channel for the latest.....

NEW WEBSITE AND YOUTUBE PAGE: Finally - both my NEW website and my NEW YouTube page are up and running!!! Please be sure to visit and look around, I think you'll really like what you see. Also, don't forget to check out my Facebook page.....
