NEWSLETTER - JANUARY 2014

It's January...and it's damn cold! Stay inside and keep warm except to go out and hear music to warm your body and soul. Hope everyone had a wonderful holiday. Wishing the best for all in the new year and hope to see some of you at the Count Basie Theatre kicking out the old and dragging in the new by the ear. Thanks for making it a great year in 2013. I am looking forward to whatever 2014 brings and continuing the journey together. Happy New Year y'all...stay tuned...

DA JUKES: As I write this, The Jukes are about to go on stage at Red Bank's Count Basie Theatre for our annual New Year's Eve gig. It's always fun, but I really can't believe it's been a year since our last gig here. Crazy how time flies. It was a great year for us, traveling to Scandinavia, the U.K, Italy, the Netherlands and all over the U.S. We've already got gigs in New England and Florida booked in 2014 and lots more dates to come. Plus, Southside is rumbling about recording a new Jukes album this year. Watch out!.....

NEW YORK HORNS: Man, what a blast playing with these cats has been!! We had a great show at Stage 72 in front of a small, but enthusiastic crowd. We're working on more dates, so I hope some more of you will try to beat the winter doldrums and come out to our live shows. We're still recording and tweaking the new CD and expect it to hit in the spring, so stay tuned. In the meantime, keep up-to-date with all of the New York Horns goings on by checking out our Facebook page.....

ETC: As some of you know, I had the privilege of recording a song with my Jukes/New York Horns/Humblebrag band-mate, John Isley, to benefit some area food banks. Although it's a Christmas song, helping the hungry never goes out of season. So, if you can spare a few dollars, please head over to John's website to make a donation and download our tune. We really appreciate your generosity... I had a fun gig pop up in December when I played The Bayou in Mount Vernon with Tom Seguso and Tony Tino. That was a blast, but then our Jukes brothers Chris Anderson and John Isley showed up and jammed with us until the wee hours. It was a killin' night and we're going to do another bluesy jam at The Bayou at the end of January, so c'mon out! ... I've been getting great feedback on my YouTube channel, my new website and my Facebook page. Please stop by, check in and say hello.....
