GUITARIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

NEWSLETTER - SEPTEMBER 2014

Wow! I can't believe summer is over and the fall is upon us.....time flies when you're having fun!!! It was a great summer for me - filled with lots of music gigs, recordings and I even found time to chill a bit high in the mountains of Colorado. I am looking forward to the beautiful fall colors and temperatures. I also do love getting to share some of what I do with the students at Sarah Lawrence College, where I teach music. It is a challenging, yet rewarding, experience that I am thankful to have. As always, I do look forward to seeing you down the road. Until then, Enjoy every moment you can and remember "everything is okay." As Michael Singer so simply, yet eloquently wrote: "everything is okay, if you are okay with everything." A lofty goal. Don't forget to come out and say hi!!!

DA JUKES: Wow, August was a whirlwind - we finally played the Stone Pony and it was a GREAT show. After playing the night before in New England, it was a mad rush to get back to New Jersey. We waded through the traffic on our rather long journey. But we arrived in time, had a quick sound check and we were off and running! The weather was pretty cold for August, but the crowd was warm and welcoming and the band was hot! We played several other dates and had a couple of runs on the tour bus that were tons of fun. This band, I'm tellin' ya, rocks regardless of the circumstances. It is always quite a journey itself on stage. September is a quiet month, but watch out for us in October!

With The Jukes at the legendary Stone Pony

GLENN STREET LIVE: John Isley and I would like to sincerely thank y'all for your support in this endeavor. It is really a labor of love - getting music to folks in the easiest possible way: via your home computer. We'll have a couple of more shows in the next month before John goes out on tour with Diana Ross, so log on to Concert Window to get the scoop. A reminder: we're also on Facebook, YouTube and Twitter.....

On Glenn Street with the Alexander/Isley Duo

NEW YORK HORNS: What a wild show at the wonderful Carroll Place in New York City!!! Not only did we have the usual craziness, but we also had special guest, my great friend - and trumpeter extraordinaire - Mark "Love Man" Pender. I love that cat!!! He is as talented and crazy as they come and I really miss playing in his band and playin his music. Needless to say, the show took on a whole 'nother dimension with him in the fold. We're working on booking a bunch of new dates and venues, so please keep checking our website and our Facebook page for all of the latest. Also, don't forget to pick up our new CD, it's available on our website, iTunes, Amazon, bandcamp, cdbaby and Google Play. It's been getting some stellar reviews, so I hope y'all will check it out.....

ETC: GA3 (plus horns!) has been playin' Glenn Street Live fairly regularly and we're working on some more dates - as well as recordings - so stay tuned ... I had a few dates with my friend Bob Burger in August. I played with him at Windansea in Highlands, and if you haven't been there, do yourself a favor and check it out. It is a great restaurant, right on the water, with spectacular vistas. We played on a picture-perfect night with Bob's "ever-changing band," and it was a blast. I'll be playin' with Bob some more in the fall, so please keep checkin' my website and my Facebook page for all the dates and info ... Speakin' of my website, I have a new My Pick up - an oldie, but goodie from the demo of The Coalition's CD. That was my band with Scott Healy, Shawn Pelton and Michael Merritt - please give it a listen ... Also, please keep watchin' my YouTube channel - I'm working on unearthing some more video from the Glenn Alexander Trio's gig at The Cutting Room in 2007.....
