GUITARIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

NEWSLETTER - OCTOBER 2014

Well, up to this point, summer has continued throughout September with really warm weather and beautiful blue skies. I feel confident that October will bring some great fall colors and crisp autumn temperatures. I love October; time to pick apples and pumpkins and put scary costumes on - the latter part not really different than any other part of the year? Oh boy. Got lotsa music happenin' - some with old friends, who are now west coasters. Hope to see you out. Enjoy the month.

DA JUKES: Not a lot going on in Jukesville in September, but the gigs we did have were quality. We played to a very enthusiastic crowd at a new venue for us - the Ardmore Music Hall in Pennsylvania. The next day we played in NYC at the Tunnel to Towers Walk/Run. This event celebrates the life of Stephen Siller, a firefighter who ran through the Brooklyn Battery Tunnel on September 11, 2001 to help. Finding the tunnel closed, he strapped 60 pounds of gear to his back and ran to the towers, only to lose his life trying to save others. Wow. This was a very emotional and meaningful gig to remember Stephen and all of the heroes who gave their life that day. Even if you didn't participate in the run, I heartily encourage you to go to the website - www.tunnel2towers.org - and support this worthy cause.....

GLENN STREET LIVE: Although there was only one Glenn Street broadcast in September, it was cool and damn fun! The one-and-only Southside Johnny made an appearance and it was amazing! He sat in with me, my Glenn Street partner John Isley, Chris Anderson, Tom Seguso and Tony Tino, and we had a blast, just playin' some classic jazz and blues numbers, as well as a few surprise tunes. You can see the entire show on the Glenn Street YouTube page, so check it out. Also, remember to monitor our Facebook page and Twitter feed for all the latest.....
