NEWSLETTER - MARCH 2015

February was a great month with the pig roast and seeing family and friends. I am looking forward to March - spring, warmer temps and, hopefully, more sunshine. I have many shows coming up in the next month or so and hope to see you along the way

GLENN STREET LIVE: With John Isley on the road with Diana Ross, Glenn Street Live has been on a bit of a hiatus. But, before the break, we had the first - of hopefully many more - of our Pig Gigs. While Porky was cooking away on a spit outside in sub-freezing temps, GA3 plus New York Horns was inside tearin' it up! Wow, that was fun! We had a bunch of very special guests, including the incredible Oria Aspen on vocals, Dan Perez on sax and Bill Elder on drums. And it was all captured on our "Ham Cam!" That will be hard to top, but we're sure gonna try!!! Anyway, we hope to have a couple of more shows for you this month, so please keep monitoring all of our pages - Facebook, Twitter and YouTube - for news

THE JUKES: Well, the much-anticipated shows at The Stone Pony didn't disappoint. We had big, crazy crowds on both nights and the band was killin'. Between the two nights, we did about 35 songs that aren't in our usual rotation. It was a bit of work, but the cats did their homework and can handle whatever curveballs Johnny throws at us. The shows got rave reviews in the press, including this one by Jay Lustig on njarts.net, who mentioned my solos on a couple of the songs and called them "dazzling" and "gracefully melodic." Here's the link to the full review. And with fast spring approaching (hopefully!), The Jukes schedule is fillin' up. This month, we'll have stops in New England, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, as well as here in New Jersey. Hope to see some of y'all along the way

ETC: I had a great gig at The Bayou in Mount Vernon, with Tony Tino on acoustic bass and the very talented Oria Aspen as a guest vocalist. We played some jazz standards, as well as some blues and country and whatever struck our fancy. It was one of the coldest nights of the year, so we were pleasantly surprised at the size of our audience. We hope to be doin' more of this type of show, so please keep checkin' my website and Facebook page ... Had a really fun gig at Bar Thalia in New York City with bassist Will Kenney and drummer Sandi Winarta. The communication was so amazing and we navigated through songs with wonderful creativity and ease. Looking forward to hittin' more with those cats ... Was thrilled to do a session for the incredible multi-instrumentalist/vocalist Timmy Cappello. Most of you would know him from his many years with Tina Turner. We did a re-recording of his hit cult song "I Still Believe," from the movie The Lost Boys - where he actually appears in the film on stage performing this song. Timmy is an amazing musician and I was honored to be a part of the recording
