

GLENN ALEXANDER

GUITARIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

NEWSLETTER - APRIL 2015

After much thought and consultation with friends and family, I have decided to abandon my music career and take on a different challenge. As much as I love music, I have received a once-in-a-lifetime offer that I simply cannot refuse. My good buddy Sigfried has invited me to perform with him on the stage in Vegas!!! Anytime you get a chance to perform with the big cats, you'd be foolish to refuse. I've always been an animal lover and my experience tangling with my cat Razzmatazz and trying to get him into his room, has provided much-needed experience that I can finally put to use - and make money doing it! Plus, I get the opportunity to wear all of those cool, navel-grazing jumpsuits. Hope to see some of y'all at one of my shows in Vegas. Oh, and by the way - April Fools!!!

Workin' on Glenn Street with my buddy Greg Novick

GLENN STREET LIVE: We came back in a big way in March!!! John Isley was back from his tour with Diana Ross and we switched up the décor in our "super-secret lair" to HOPEFULLY make our webcasts more visually appealing. Anyway, we had a couple of great broadcasts with Chris Anderson, Greg Novick, Dave Longworth, Tom Seguso and Dan Perez. We debuted a bunch of new material, and revisited some old favorites, as well. If you missed those shows - or any other of our broadcasts - you can catch them on our YouTube channel. We hope to have more shows

Hittin' with The Jukes in Collingswood

for you this month, so please keep monitoring all of our pages, Facebook and Twitter for the latest news and info

THE JUKES: After a somewhat slow winter, The Jukes hit the road with a vengeance in March. We went to New England, where the amount of snow we saw was CRAZY! Then, we not only braved the elements travelling to our shows in Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Chicago, but also had to deal with a bus with no heat AND that broke down. But, the music was good and that's what it's really all about. April brings a show at one of our favorite place - Infinity Music Hall - and a bunch of dates in Florida. We are also getting ready to start recording the new Jukes album, so stay tuned

ETC: I just launched a new website that showcases the incredible artwork of my parents. The Leland and Shirley Alexander Art site also features some amazing furniture my Dad has handcrafted. I encourage you to check it out and read their story ... I have another jazz hit coming up in April with my good friend Will Kenney and drummer Sandi Winarta at Bar Thalia in New York City. We had a great gig a few weeks back and I'm lookin' forward to hittin' with those cats again. Last time we played there, everything was firin' on all cylinders - great communication, great collaboration, great music ... The New York Horns will be at a tiny joint in Westchester County - Pete's Saloon in Elmsford. I'm told this is a great music venue with outstanding food, so please come join us. Keep checking our website and Facebook page for details and other info I will have the pleasure of performing with the extraordinarily talented singer/songwriter Oria Aspen on a bunch of dates coming up in then next few months. Please keep watching my website and Facebook page for more dates and details
