NEWSLETTER - MAY 2015

Finally! Winter is gone, spring is here and summer on the way...whooooopppppee! I love May, as it is garden-prepping and planting time, something I love to do, as the veggies - fresh, canned and frozen - sustain me throughout the year. Not a lot of live performances this month, but I like the downtime which gives me time for practicing, writing and recording new material, as well as working on new developments for Glenn Street Live with John Isley. I hope you enjoy this beautiful weather in this incredible month of May. Please tune in to Glenn Street Live this month or swing out to a gig and say hi

THE JUKES: Well, we're in the recording studio and things are progressing nicely, so y'all should expect a new Jukes album soon.

At Pete's Saloon with the New York Horns

It's an old school soul album and there are some great new tunes, so I think all fans will be very happy with the end result. But, in the meantime, it's business as usual! We have a bunch of local dates in May, as well as a few private events, so c'mon out and get Jukified!!!

NEW YORK HORNS: With the Jukes recording and on the road, along with everyone's individual schedules, it's tough to get all the cats together, but when we do it's always a blast. Case in point - the great show we had at Pete's Saloon in Elmsford. It's a small restaurant/tavern in suburban Westchester, but we rocked-out to an enthusiastic crowd until the wee hours. We're hoping to get some more dates on the calendar

very soon, so keep checking our website and Facebook page for details and other info

GLENN STREET LIVE: Unfortunately, Glenn Street was dark in April due to scheduling conflicts, but we are planning to have a couple of shows in May, on both the 7th and the 14th. Please keep monitoring my website, as well as the Glenn Street Facebook and Twitter pages for the latest news and info. Also, if you missed any of our previous webcasts, you can catch them on our YouTube channel

ETC: I have some great shows coming up this month with my daughter, Oria Aspen, starting with a local hit at Grillestone in Scotch Plains. Check the dates below for all of the info ... I had a last-second gig pop up last month with Ozma Code. We played at the legendary Bitter End in New York City and it is always great to hit with those guys. I love the spirit of collaboration and experimentation that each musician brings to the table. We're hoping to add some more dates to the schedule, so keep an eye on the Ozma Code website ... I want to thank everyone for the tremendous response for the new website that showcases the artwork of my parents. As most of you know by now, both my mom and dad are incredible artists and creating this website is my way of sharing their amazing paintings - and my dad's handcrafted furniture - with the world. I encourage you to check it out and read their story ... Also, please check my website and Facebook page for all of the latest, news, gig dates and information
