GUITARIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

NEWSLETTER - JUNE 2015

Things are changing by the minute, gigs coming in, moving around and falling off, so check the my website or Facebook page often, please. Frankly, my live performances are down this month, which is not a bad thing, as it allows me to concentrate on wrapping-up various recording projects - F5 with Dave LaRue, GA3 with NY Horns and some previously recorded jazz sessions - as well as writing some new things. I also love getting my garden going and plan on doing a little fishing. Life is good! Come on out to a gig and say hi. Enjoy the summer!!!

ORIA ASPEN: I had some absolutely wonderful shows last month with my daughter, Oria Aspen. We had a great hit at Grillestone in Scotch Plains (great food and vibe at that joint), followed by an amazing experience at St.

Havin' fun with Oria at the Bronxville Library

Paul's Church in Mt. Vernon. On the list of National Historic sites, it was used as a hospital during the Revolutionary War and the sound in that place was incredible - wow! We also had a great show at the Bronxville Public Library where our performance received a standing ovation. Thank you to everyone who came out to witness these shows. Nothing gives me greater pleasure than playing this type of music and sharing the spotlight with the amazingly-talented Oria. Stay tuned for more dates coming up

THE JUKES: The Jukes summer schedule is coming together, so please come out and check out a show. June will see us doin' some of our favorite local haunts - BB King's in New York City and the Borgata in Atlantic City - as well as another jaunt to the Midwest at the end of the month, ending with the House of Blues in Chicago. We just finished the recording part of our new album and we're on to mixing and finishing up - so there is some excitement in Jukesville!!! Hope to see some of y'all soon

GA3: There's some stuff going on with GA3! If you have been watching, you know that we have become the house band for Glenn Street Live and we're in the process of taking it to the next level - we're going to start recording! We have a bunch of original tunes lined up and we'll be collaborating with the New York Horns, so stay tuned! We're also hoping to put some more live dates on the calendar, so stay tuned

GLENN STREET LIVE: We got one show in during May, but unfortunately it was plagued with technical problems. We have a bunch of new equipment, but we can't tell if everything is working until we try to go live. Once we get all of the glitches worked out, Glenn Street will be an even more amazing experience than it already is! A big "thank you" to everyone who tuned in and stuck with us - you don't know how much we appreciate it. We hope to have some shows in the latter part of June, so please stay tuned. Check out the Glenn Street Facebook and Twitter pages, as well as my website for the latest news and info. And remember: if you missed any of our previous webcasts (except for that last one - trust me, you don't want to relive that one!), check out our YouTube channel

ETC: I'll be at Bar Thalia in early June for a jazz hit with my buddies Will Kenney and Kim Plainfield. These shows are always fun for me and I enjoy playing with these talented cats. And Bar Thalia is a great venue - it's part of Symphony Space on New York's Upper West Side - so c'mon out ... And don't forget - please keep checkin' website and Facebook page for all of the latest

With Oria Aspen, Dave Longworth and John Conte
