GUITARIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

NEWSLETTER - DECEMBER 2015

Well, can you believe it? This is the three year anniversary of my newsletter. Hope you folks are diggin' it. That means another year is about to close and a new year is dawning. I am grateful for every single day and thankful for my family and friends and all that I am blessed with. I hope all of you have a wonderful holiday season. Give to those you love and those in need. Give of yourself expecting nothing in return and always remember, it is better to give than to receive. Please be safe this holiday season - Merry Christmas and, of course, Happy Nude Year!!! ..... Glenn

GA3: Between my teaching and gigging dates and John Isley's Vegas rendezvous with Miss Diana Ross, as well as the other cats hectic schedules, GA3 didn't get a lot of recording done last month, but we're working on it! And we're also workin' on a new name for the band, so lots of exciting things are right around the corner. The bottom line is the band has a lot of talented players with a lot of great ideas and contributions, so it's always fun and interesting to play together. We're also lookin' forward to bringin' you some new music in the new year, so please be patient and stay tuned .....

NEW YORK HORNS: And speaking of a band full of busy, talented guys!!! The New York Horns are back in action this month, as we will play again at Pete's Saloon in Elmsford. With a band this big, it's hard to nail down dates when we all can play, so this is an early Christmas treat for you! And us, too - we love this place - such a great vibe as well as great food and drink. We also have a date at the great Mexicali Live in Teaneck. While we hope to put more dates on the calendar soon, but we'd love for y'all to join us for one of our pre-Christmas gigs .....

To Infinity and beyond! At Infinity Hartford...

With The Jukes in Beverly, Massachusetts

THE JUKE: November was a busy month for The Jukes - we had a few private events, as well as a full slate of other shows, including two nights at the Iridium in New York City, which was taped for a PBS broadcast. December will be slow until the end of the month when we head to our annual Rams Head and Birchmere shows. And, we're back at the Count Basie Theatre for New Year's Eve, so please come out and catch a show and ring in the new year with us .....

ORIA ASPEN: Oria and I had some great November dates at The Bayou and Bar Thalia. We're working on some new music together, so we hope you'll come and check us out. We'll be at the Salt Creek Grille in Princeton on December 19th. Oria will also be going into the studio this month, recording some vocals with GA3 and also putting down some tracks of her own material. Keep watching both my website and Facebook page for all of the latest gigs and info .....

ETC: I'm excited to be guesting with The Peter Brendler Quartet, featuring tenor sax man Rich Perry. I'll be subbing for Ben Monder at the performance at Sarah Lawrence College on December 1st. It's open to the public, so c'mon out!!!
