NEWSLETTER - JANUARY 2016

Well, 2015 was a great year, but it be gone, and here we are in 2016. Wow, I honestly never thought I would live to see it! Happy I did, as life is good. Wishing everyone a new year filled with peace, happiness, physical, spiritual and emotional health and any other kind of wealth you might achieve. I have a feeling winter is finally here, so stay warm and thanks again for a great year in 2015. Happy Nude Year!!!

Havin' a good time with the New York Horns at Pete's Saloon

GA3: Well, the group that has primarily been operating as GA3 is headed for a name change. We began as a trio, but then added horns, so it is time to define this entity. We have a couple of prospective names in the hopper and will break out the new moniker as soon as a decision has been made. We've been writing and recording and hope to have new music available in early 2016. For the record, we are: John Isley, Chris Anderson, Tom Seguso, Greg Novick and, of course, yours truly. We also have a cast of great players who are often part of the team - folks like Tony Tino and Dave Longworth. We've been working on a bunch of new tunes - some original compositions, as well as some covers. I think you'll dig it. So, please stay tuned for more news

NEW YORK HORNS: Well, we had a couple of really great gigs last month. The first at Pete's Saloon in Elmsford. Such a fun night with both old friends and some new ones. The following week we played at Mexicali Live to a sellout crowd - WOW! That show was a blast! We got such a warm reception from the crowd and some us hung out and jammed with the headlining Mighty Spectrum Band. It was a great night and it made us realize that we have to start scheduling more dates, because we have so much fun playin' together. We're working on it, so please keep watching our website and our Facebook page for the latest

THE JUKES: As I write this, The Jukes are out on the road but looking forward to the big New Year's Eve show at the Count Basie Theatre in Red Bank. This is always one of our favorite nights of the year - we see old friends and new and we help people ring in the new year with the promise of better days ahead. The Jukes had a great 2015 - a new album, Southern!, and sellout crowds. We're looking forward to 2016 with a visit to NYC's BB King Blues Club, our old friends at the Keswick Theatre and a late-month jaunt to Florida, always a welcome trip in January!!! Come out and say hi

ORIA ASPEN: Wow, what a month! Oria and I had a great December, with a wonderful show at the Salt Creek Grille in Princeton. We were accompanied by our good friend, Peter Brendler on bass, and it was just an amazing night with great friends and great music. Oria will be back there on January 16th with the great guitarist Jerry Topinka. We have been working on a lot of new music and look forward to sharing it with you, so please keep checking my website and my Facebook page for all of the last-minute gig dates and news
