

GLENN ALEXANDER

GUITARIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

NEWSLETTER - FEBRUARY 2017

We're in the heart of winter but so far it's been pretty mild, not bad at all, really. The cold, rainy, dark and dreary skies really do make you appreciate the sun and warmer weather of spring, though. We have lots of music happening this winter/spring and I hope to see some of you out havin' fun with us. If you don't have the music of Glenn Alexander & Shadowland, then there is clearly something missing in your life. Great things are happening around the globe for Shadowland, and we hope you'll come join us and be part of it. Stay warm!!!! Glenn

SHADOWLAND: Wow, January was an amazing month in Shadowland!!! First, we had the honor of playin' the annual Light of Day show at The Stone Pony. It's a wonderful show with a full night of bands and music, all to benefit Parkinson's Disease. Because of time constraints, we had a short set, but the band threw down, kicked ass and the feedback has been incredible - thank you! Music writer Jay Lustig gave our set a great review for njarts.net and someone taped our set and put it on YouTube, so if you weren't able to make it to The Pony, please check it out and you can get a taste of what you missed. Then, we had a great gig at the Laundromat Bar in Morristown. Lots of folks came out to the early show and we had 'em up and dancing! That's what we like! We've also been getting some really extensive airplay in Europe, as well as getting a fantastic review from soundguardian.com, a Croatian music site. This month, we'll be back at Hat City Kitchen in Orange, New Jersey, so please come join in the mayhem and fun. It's a great little joint with excellent Cajun/creole and soul food. If you don't have the Shadowland CD yet, it's available at my website, or you can download it from iTunes, Amazon, Tidal, cdbaby, Spotify in Northern Jersey. We start ramping-up again in February and head to on down to Florida for a bunch of shows mid-month. Lookin' forward to some sunshine and warmer temps!

With New York Horns at 12 Grapes

ETC: I had a really fun show with the New York Horns at 12 Grapes in Peekskill. The place was packed and the crowd showed us a lot of love and appreciation - thank you! This is a great place and the owners, Rich and Jeannie, always treat us great ... I spent the first two days of the new year recording the new project I mentioned in my last newsletter - the songs of the great Billie Holliday as sung by Southside Johnny. The recording sessions were great and this project - conceived by my buddy, John Isley - is really killin'. Will keep you posted on its progress ... Oria and I continue to record and work on new material for our duo. We had a nice show at Bar Thalia in New York City and send out a big thank you to everyone who came out on a cold Thursday night. Please keep checking both my website and Facebook page for the latest news, updates, photos and show announcements for all of my different projects
