NEWSLETTER - MAY 2017

Wow, May is here!!! I love the spring - so much great energy that comes with blooming flowers, green grass, warmer temps, blue skies and lots of sunshine. I can't wait to plant my garden and soon will post some videos from last year's crop. Great things are happening daily for Shadowland; CDs and downloads are selling like hotcakes - woohoo!!! Thanks to all who have supported us. I look forward to seeing you in May and this summer. Get some sun!! We are so blessed and I am damn grateful. Spread the spring love, baby!!!

THE JUKE: As I write this, I am on my way to perform at the New Orleans Jazz Festival with The Jukes. This is a great annual event and we couldn't be happier to be on the bill. And it couldn't be comin' at a better time, because the band is really in a great groove and hittin' on all cylinders lately. We had a great three-date swing through California - our first in ten years! It was a nice opportunity for me to connect with folks I don't get to see very often - including LaBamba and Mark Pender, my brother Lee and my good friend Kaz Maslanka. Kaz took the pic of me and Lee on the left and it was great to hang with all of these cats for a bit. Also got to hang with Richie Sambora and Orianthi at our show at Whiskey a Go-Go. Richie sat in and we had a blast. After a really busy couple of months, things slow down a little in Jukesville, with only a couple of shows in May - at BB King in New York City and The Heights in Westchester - as well as a couple of private shows. We get busy again as the weather gets warmer in June, so be on the lookout for us and try to catch one of those gigs, if you can

Two cowboys on Sunset Strip - me and my brother Lee in L.A.

SHADOWLAND: After some time off due to our busy Jukes schedule, Shadowland was back at it in April, with a great show in Morristown at the Laundromat Bar. I have to say that it is a killin' band and it was fun to play again at this funky little place and the crowd was awesome - thanks to all that stopped by to catch our show and say hello. We'll be back there in early June, so stay tuned for more info! This month, we will make our debut at Roxy & Dukes Roadhouse in Dunellen, New Jersey. If you haven't been to this great music room, now is your chance! And, at the end of the month, Shadowland will be at Lucille's Grille, part of the BB King Blues Club in New York City. Hope to see some of y'all at our first New York City gig of 2017! I also want to share some other exciting Shadowland news - we'll be playin' a show in September at Worsell Manor in Warwick, Maryland, as part of their "Music In The Barn" series. This is an amazing place that dates back to the 1600s, when George Washington used to attend parties there - WOW! Anyway, seating is limited and this place always sells out, so get your tickets early! Also, there will be another great show in September when Shadowland plays my home-town of Maize, Kansas! This should be an epic night and details are still being worked out, but please keep watching my website and my Facebook page for more info on this date and all the other gigs. Plus, one more shameless plug for the debut Shadowland CD, which is getting great reviews all over the world. If you don't have a copy, you're missin' out, so check out my website store or you can download it from iTunes, Amazon, Tidal, cdbaby, Spotify and all of the other digital platforms

Hittin' with Shadowland in Morristown

ETC: I think I mentioned in an earlier newsletter about a great project I'm workin' on with Southside Johnny - a new album where he sings the songs of the late Billie Holiday. Well, I'm happy to announce that I'll be part of the band when Johnny takes the stage at a tribute show to the legendary singer. "Homage to Billie Holiday" - taking place at Harlem's Apollo Theatre on Tuesday, May 16th - also features Bettye LaVette, William Bell, Lizz Wright, Rickie Lee Jones and others. For more info, click here. It should be a memorable night
