NEWSLETTER - JULY 2017

July - the middle of summer and a very hot month. I love it! Lots of sun and a little rain makes for a really perfect garden, producing lots of delicious fruits. I hope y'all can get out, get a little sun and hear some great music. You've got to enjoy the good parts of life. I'm traveling a lot and lovin' every second. Please come out and say hey!! Shadowland has so many great things coming in the fall and lots of new music on the way....so please stayed tuned, come out and spread the word baby!! Enjoy this beautiful month and I'll see ya down the road backupsingers. I was also honored to meet the legendary J.T. Bowen, with whom we shared the night with. We exchanged CDs and I have to say, the cat has still got it - what a voice! At press time, there are no Shadowland dates in July, but we're gearin' up for a night at the Westfield Jazz Fest in early August and a busy fall, so please keep checkin' both my website and my Facebook page for all the latest news and gig info

THE JUKES: June was an interesting month for the Jukes - we almost had more private events on the calendar than public shows. We had a hot - in more ways than one - free show at a New York City street fair in Madison Square Park. It was a big crowd on a very hot day and folks really dug it. Then, we had a too short, three-day trip to Europe, where we played London, Paris and Amsterdam. The crowds there are wonderful and welcoming. It's amazing how music bridges all gaps in the world - especially now. As you read this, we're probably on stage at the annual Stone Pony Summer Stage show. It's always a big, drunk, unruly party, so I'm sure I'll have a lot to report next month

ETC: So psyched to be hittin' with Oria this month in a jazz gig. We'll be at the great Bar Thalia in New York City. It's been a bit since we've been there and we're excited about gettin' back. These shows are very loose and "in the moment," nothing but pure fun! And if you've never heard Oria sing jazz, then buckle up - you're iin for a treat! Hope to see some of y'all there ... Had the pleasure of playin' last month with my good buddies Mark Pender, LaBamba, Scott Healy, Michael Merritt, James Wormworth and Ron Dziubla in Los Angeles. It was a fun night and I got to visit a bit with my older brother, Lee, which is always a treat

SHADOWLAND: Shadowland had a damn good time in June - thanks to everyone who was on board to share the love and share the ride! Shadowland ended May at Lucille's Grill at B.B. King in New York City. Then, two days later, we were back at it at the always - fun Laundromat Bar in Morristown. That was a great little gig and we got a ton of positive feedback from folks who just happened upon us while stopping by for a drink. Finally, we had a great night at Asbury Park's famous Wonder Bar! We had a killin' set with the full Shadowland band - including three horns and three
