GUITARIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

NEWSLETTER - SEPTEMBER 2017

Ladies and People! The event of the fall/year is coming up on Sunday, October 1st - and you don't want to miss Pig Gig 3!!! Details are below, but this is an all-you-can-eat/drink event with great music and special guests. Also, 100% of all Pig Gig profits will go to the Fibrolamellar Cancer Foundation to honor the memory of my nephew, Jay. Because this is such a rare disease, it doesn't get as much attention as more common cancers, so this research is desperately needed. Click here to learn more about the Foundation's research. Pig Gig 3 tickets are available at Ticketbud and my website - get yours NOW!!! Glenn

Look who's back! Pig Gig 3 is October 1st

SHADOWLAND: Wow, September is lookin' to be a HUGE month for Shadowland with a lot of big, important shows comin' up. First up is a date at Roxy & Duke's in Dunellen. It's kind of a roadhouse honky-tonk kind of place. We played there back in May and are happy to be back. Next up is a show at Worsell Manor in Warwick, Maryland. This is a beautiful venue with an amazing history - it dates back to 1683 and was a favorite stomping ground of George Washington! It's a small place, so make sure to get your tickets early. A week later, Shadowland heads to the country's heartland for a free outdoor show in my hometown of Maize, Kansas! This is a big thrill for me and I'm really lookin' forward to seeing lots of family and old and new friends there and spreadin' the gospel of Shadowland! And, although it's not TECHNICALLY this month, the Glenn Alexander & Shadowland Pig Gig 3 is a go!!! This year's porcine extravaganza will be Sunday, October 1st at the Italian American Hall in Scotch Plains, New Jersey. Our good friends The Lonesome Pines will open up the festivities with their brand of roots-based, alt-country music. Like last year, your admission gives you access to all of the beer, wine and food you can handle.

At Westfield Jazz Festival with Oria

And, of course, lots and lots of pig! For the main course, Shadowland will be servin' up a heapin' helping of kick-ass music - with our special mystery guest vocalist (who also plays a mean harmonica) and whose initials are: SSJ. So, mark your calendar - you won't want to miss this! Admission is $40 in advance and available through ticketbud or my website store. Tickets will be available at the door on the day of the show for $50, so save some dough and buy in advance!!! Hope to see y'all ... Speaking of my website store - Shadowland t-shirts are now available! Please check 'em out - I think you'll dig them

THE JUKES: After a relatively quiet (for us) summer, The Jukes were busy in August, with a bunch of really fun shows in New England and upstate New York, as well as the final Mike Francesca/WFAN show at Bar A. It seems Mike is hanging up his WFAN mic at the end of the year and wanted us back for one more Belmar blowout ... This month, the Jukes head to Japan for the first time in decades. We'll be playin' shows in both Osaka and Tokyo. Lookin' forward to some really good sushi

ETC: As I reported last month, I have entered the world of Twitter and hope you will follow me @ga_shadowland ... Thank you so much for all of the positive feedback on my gardening videos!!! I have a new crop shot and will post soon. They were a lot of fun to make and I love the silliness of them ... And remember: all of the latest news and gig dates are on both my website and my Facebook page, so check back often. Thanks to everyone who checks in and says hi - love hearin' from you folks, so please keep it comin'
