I have some scattered, but fun gigs this month starting with Friday, June 1st – Shadowland in South Orange, New Jersey at The Elks Lodge...Say what?!? Yes, indeed. Then, on Monday, June 4th, I'll be playin' The Blue Note Jazz Club in New York City with Southside Johnny and The John Isley nonet, doing the songs of Billie Holiday. Well, summer is finally on and I couldn't be happier. I love growing crops and warm temperatures. Wishing y'all a great June 2018. Safe travels wherever you're headed and stop out say high!!! .....

SHADOWLAND: Well, Shadowland had a great gig at Crossroads in Garwood last month, and we really appreciate everyone comin' out. We have a couple of hits this month - at The Elks Lodge in South Orange and at the Laundromat Bar in Morristown, one of our favorite places to play. And for all of those who inquired - yes, we are still working on the new album! As I've said before, it's tough to coordinate everyone's touring schedules, but we're plowing through! I'm thrilled to have my good friend Mike Finnigan on our new album. Mike is one of the greatest soul /R&B organ players on the planet and singer extraordinaire who sang duets with Etta James! He has also toured and recorded with the great Bonnie Raitt for the past six years. Hopefully, you'll be able to hear this new music very soon. In the meantime, please keep checkin' my website, Facebook page and Twitter feed for all of the latest news, gig dates and info .....

THE JUKES: After a relatively quiet May, The Jukes have an equally quiet June, which gives me more time to drink and garden - at the same time! Seriously, The Jukes have a return gig at Infinity Hall in Norfolk, Connecticut. I highly recommend this venue - it's beautiful and has amazing acoustics. We are also once again headlining the Rockland-Bergen Music Festival, an event put together by our friend, Joe D'Urso. It should be a great day of music, with Joe's band playin', as well as Jeffrey Gaines and Steve Forbert. So bring your blankets and lawn chairs and c'mon out! July will be much busier with our annual outdoor show at The Stone Pony, as well as a tour of Europe, so watch out .....

ETC: Due to scheduling conflicts, the gig at Roosterspin had to be rescheduled. Oria and I will be playin' there mid-June. We're very excited to get back there it's a really funky place with a great menu, featuring great Korean cuisine ... I am really looking forward to a gig at the legendary Blue Note Jazz Club this month - Southside Johnny will be playin' the songs of the great Billie Holiday in support of his recent album, Detour Ahead. This whole project was put together by my good friend and bandmate, John Isley, and if you haven't heard it, I encourage y'all to go on The Jukes website and order yourself a copy. You'll be glad you did .....
