GUITARIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

NEWSLETTER – NOVEMBER 2021

Woohoo! The Pig Gig was a tremendous success! Thank you to all! What a team effort from everyone to organizers, sponsors, volunteers, musicians, workers, servers, speakers and attendees - Here's To Jay! November is a month of giving thanks. That seems to me to mean giving to others and being thankful for all that we have in our lives. We are blessed and lucky and I am damn grateful. Please make sure to spread the love! A little love goes a long way. I hope everyone has a wonderful November and a great holiday! Please be safe! Glenn for research of this rare form of cancer that tragically took the life of my nephew Jay Alexander when he was only 20 years old. Thanks to: Blue Americana, The Lonesome Pines, James Maddock, The Weeklings, Glenn Alexander & Shadowland, all of whom blew the roof off the joint. Unfortunately, our planned special guest Southside Johnny had a dental emergency and was unable to attend. We missed him, but look forward to having him guest next year. Taking care of business with all of the bands was Zack Sandler, who has been at every Pig Gig and becomes more and more important to the success of the event each year. Of course, we owe a huge thank you to each and every sponsor who jumped on board and made the event a tremendous success. And thanks to Capt. Al Sellinger for bringing on so many new and repeat sponsors. Daniela Sellinger and Def. Dave Belford tirelessly worked the door for the whole event - thank you, both! The silent auction - which featured an amazing autographed Danny Clinch photo of The Jukes; an autographed copy of Steve Van Zandt's new memoir; autographed Jukes posters and an inflatable pig signed by each artist who performed. Also, we have one additional item - two tickets to The Jukes annual New Year's Eve show at the Basie Center for the Arts. We will be auctioning these tickets - complete with a meet-and-greet with the band - online, so please stay tuned for more information. Details will be on my Facebook, website, the Shadowland website and Twitter very soon .....

L.A.X.: Wow, here's some big news! L.A.X., my power trio with bassist Dave LaRue and drummer Van Romaine, has just released a new video for the song "I Can Have The Blues." This track also has legendary badass Southside Johnny blowin' harp and singin' some parts. Additionally, we have some live dates comin' up in early December that you are gonna wanna check out. If you like high-energy blues-rock, I guarantee you gonna dig it. Please check out the dates on our website - www.laruealexanderlax.com - or my website. Can't wait - I love hittin' with these cats, cause they be bad!!!

PIG GIG 6!!!: As I said above, Pig Gig 6 was an ENORMOUS success!!! While we are still tallying up the final numbers, right now our donation to the Fibrolamellar Cancer Foundation is at $20,000 and counting! As you can imagine, an event like this is a huge undertaking and its success is dependent on an amazing team of people, including all of the volunteers who worked that day at the front door, at the bar, at the merch table, at the food serving stations and with the setup and the clean up. We also want to thank all of the wonderful musicians who gave of their time and talent to play for the cause - raising awareness and money
