NEWSLETTER - DECEMBER 2021

Well, this year just flew by for me. This is the final month of the year and I hope everyone makes the absolute most of it!!! Lotsa good stuff happened this year - and it's had it's share of insanity, as well. There was a lot of good music and plenty of good times. Pig Gig 6 was a success and I am so looking forward to some gigs this month with LaRue/Alexander - L.A.X., as well as Quarantunes with Blue Americana and some hits with Southside Johnny and The Asbury Jukes. I will also be playin' with my good friend LaBamba at The Stone Pony - details are below. Thank you to everyone for a wonderful year and thank you for being in my life and enriching every day. Enjoy every moment of this incredible December. See y'all in 2022 Glenn

L.A.X.: Wow - L.A.X. - my power trio with bassist Dave LaRue and drummer Van Romaine - is gearing up for some East Coast dates in the beginning of the month. If you remember, we were booking dates and getting ready to do a more extensive tour back in 2020 when the pandemic hit, so we are very excited to get out and do some live dates. We'll kick-off our mini-tour at a new spot for us - The Warehouse out in Amityville, Long Island - and then hit some familiar places - Mil & Jim's Parkway Inn and Kennett Flash, both in Pennsylvania. We'll finish up with a weekday afternoon show at Sarah Lawrence College. We hope to see some of you folks at one of these shows. But, before you attend, please check the each of the venue's websites or social media pages for their individual Covid-19 safety protocols. Requirements vary from venue to venue and some may require proof of vaccination and/or masks. Anyway, excited to hit with Dave and Van - both are great friends of mine and monster players, so this should be some great nights of music!

PIG GIG 6: Even if you missed the Pig Gig 6 event, you can still make a difference! The Basie Center for the Arts has generously donated a pair of orchestra tickets to The Jukes iconic New Year's Eve show...but wait, there's more! We've added a meet-and-greet with Southside and the band! This is a one-of-a-kind offer and it can be yours! Here's how: Go to my website store and click on the NYE ticket offer; then, click on the "donate" button to make a $20 donation to the Fibrolamellar Cancer Foundation. Your name will be thrown into a hat and the lucky winner's name will be drawn and announced on the December 10th edition of Quarantunes. All proceeds will go directly to the Fibro Fund in honor of my nephew Jay Alexander, who lost his battle with this terrible disease in 2011. Please note: Only donations made through my website store will be eligible and the deadline for donations for a chance at the tickets is Thursday, December 9th. And, as I announced in the last newsletter, Pig Gig 6 was an amazing success, with the amount donated now at $20,000. Thanks to everyone who supported this worthy cause. For any and all updates, please keep checkin' my Facebook, website, and Twitter feed

BLUE AMERICANA: Blue Americana has a hit at Hailey's in Metuchen on December 16th - we love that joint! - as well as two big Quarantunes dates coming up this month. On Friday, December 10th, we'll be drawing the name of the lucky person who will get two orchestra tickets to The Jukes New Year's Eve show/meet-and-greet at the Basie Center for the Arts in Red Bank. Then, on the 16th we're at Hailey's and on the 17th, we have our Christmas Quarantunes. That was a ton of fun last year, so please tune in. For updates, please keep checking our website, Facebook page and Twitter feed

THE JUKES: The Jukes have only three shows on the calendar this month, but they are big ones! After two years, we are back at The Birchmere, the Rams Head and The Basie. These shows are always legendary and we're glad to be back - hope to see y'all there
