NEWSLETTER - FEBRUARY 2022

Hey Folks - it's February and it is colder than a well-digger's a, colder than a witch's t and I don't be likin' it so much. I know, it's winter so stop the whining. I guess we really can't complain because it didn't even get cold until the middle of January. Hey, how about this global warming?!? Okay, well we got some music this month - L.A.X. in Florida, Southside Johnny in Jersey at The Stone Pony and best of all: Blue Americana with Oria and yours truly, almost every Friday night until things warm up and the big omicron cools down. So, c'mon out and see some music or stay home where it's warm and safe, grab your favorite quarantini and tune in Blue Americana, live Fridays on my Facebook page - www.facebook.com/glennalexandermusic. Be safe and stay healthy!!! Glenn

L.A.X.: My power trio with my good friend and bass player extraordinaire Dave LaRue has a trio of dates early this month in Florida and we can't wait! Me, especially - goin' to Florida and escaping these frigid temps sounds great right about now! Anyway, our first stop is at Safety Harbor Art and Music Center on the 3rd, followed by the Shovelhead Lounge on the 4th and finishing up at The Music Ranch in Lakeland on the 5th. Hope to see our Florida friends at these dates. Info about these dates and the band can be found at the L.A.X. website - www.laruealexanderlax.com - and also on my website, my Facebook page and Twitter feed. So please check us out at any of those spots on the web and hope to see y'all down south

Dave LaRue and I have some L.A.X. dates in Florida

BLUE AMERICANA: We were thrilled when Blue Americana was announced as a part of the Light of Day WinterFest 2022 lineup and then were disappointed when the shows got postponed because of the spiking Covid-19 cases. But, good news! The new dates have been announced! We will be playin' two shows - our first hit is Friday, March 4th at a Songwriters-in-the-Round show at Outpost in the Burbs in Montclair. This is a very cool venue that is actually at the First Congregational Church. Blue Americana will be on the bill with some killer singer/songwriters, including: James Maddock, Guy Davis, Joe D'Urso and, from The Weeklings, Glen Burtnik and Bob Burger. With a lineup like this, tickets will surely go fast, so get 'em here: <https://outpost.ticketleap.com/light-of-day-2022/details>. Next up will be a Songwriters-by-the-Sea event at The Robinson Ale House in Asbury Park on Sunday, March 13th. Tickets for that show are available here: <https://mclloones.ticketbud.com/lod-winterfest-2022-songwriters-by-the-sea-b7436ac9-7ca677414ae7>. Oria and I are proud to be a part of this great annual fundraiser for Parkinson's disease and we're really looking forward to being a part of Light Of Day family. Hope y'all will join us and support this wonderful cause. Please keep checking our website, Facebook page and Twitter feed for more info and updates ... Quarantunes has become a big part of our lives during these past two years and we are thankful for every single one of you who check in with us on Friday nights! They are fun for us and hopefully for y'all as well. We will have three Quarantunes in February and we're planning some theme nights, so tune in! ... Blue Americana is back at Hailey's Harp & Pub this month! We're excited to get back to one of our favorite joints! Check out the live dates below for more info

THE JUKES: The Jukes have only one date this month, but it's a big one - the Stupid Cupid winter show at The Stone Pony. The last time we played inside The Pony was right before the pandemic, so we are overdue to blow the roof off the joint! After February, The Jukes calendar starts to fill up a bit, so watch out!

Quarantunes keeps rollin' on - we love it!
