NEWSLETTER - APRIL 2023

Folks, I don't mind sayin' that life is not always a walk in the park. Sometimes it's hard and most of March has been pretty damn rough for me. A lot of personal disappointments, family health challenges and the passing of my father. Of course we have two choices: to lie down and fold, or stand up and tackle things head on. Every day can present new challenges, but I am grateful for the opportunity to rise above, learn from all things good, bad, shitty and fun, and try and be better, positive and happy. It's so easy to fall down and become dark and negative. That's a real recipe for disaster and usually only magnifies and multiplies the problems at hand and the stress and anxiety that accompany them. I love the spring months that bring with them - the welcomed warmer temps and the positive, amazing energy of the sun. Enjoy every day and every moment as best you can as it is not preparation for something else. We have NOW and isn't it always now? Come see us, say hello and share some love Glenn

BLUE AMERICANA: We continue to write and record and perform regularly at Hailey's Harp & Pub in Metuchen and Grillestone Restaurant in Scotch Plains. We love both of these spots - great drink, great food, great music and fun times - what's not to love?!? We have some dates scheduled this month, so check the calendar below and c'mon out! ... We are set to release "Dancin' In The Rain Tonight," a song that I wrote with my brother Greg about workin' the farm, loss, heartbreak, hard times and good times. Oria sings her butt off on it and it also features the keyboard work of the incredibly talented Scott Healy, as well as and drums and percussion by the world-renowned Van Romaine. Don't forget to check out our website and our Facebook page for all the latest info

THE JUKES: We have a few dates this month in Pennsylvania and Ohio. it is always fun to hit with the wild man himself and all the cats. We are a party band, that's what we do, so come on out and party with us, people! Please check The

Jukes website for all of the ticketed gigs at: www.southsidejohnny.com and keep checkin' my Facebook page, Twitter feed my website for all the latest

HUMBLEBRAG: Wow, Humblebrag rides again! After many years of being dormant, we played at the great Silvana Restaurant in New York City in March, and we are hittin' again this month! The music has its base in soul jazz, but definitely steps well beyond that. With the addition of Ted Kooshian on keys, it has really elevated the band and pushed us into new, welcomed territory. We are really looking forward to performing for the students at Sarah Lawrence College in early April

ETC: Oria has been recording and we have started mixing some new songs and will be releasing one in April. Her shit is really freakin' amazing if I say so myself ... Shadowland is on hold, but will also be releasing some music later this month or early May. We have many songs in the can that will be released ASAP, so please stay tuned
