NEWSLETTER - JANUARY 2024

Folks, if we are lucky, we are now beginning a new year! Last year was a good year, but also a really challenging year for me - losing my father and being in some unhealthy and abusive relationships - but, hallelujah it's 2024!!! And I have shed the old skin and I'm really looking forward to what tomorrow brings and the excitement of moving into the unknown. I continue to work on and will release lots of new music in 2024. I am thankful and grateful to all of you for your incredible support in all that I do in my tiny little corner of the universe. I look forward to seeing and hearing from all of you throughout this new and glorious year. Please be safe out there, stay positive and spread love. So many things are upside down, and it's easy to get down, but it is up to each and every one of us to share the love and positive vibes wherever we go. Happy Nude Year!!! Glenn

BLUE AMERICANA: Looking forward to January, as this looks to be a big month for Blue Americana! We have a date in the big Light Of Day festivities. We will be part of a singer-songwriter in-the-round, which we've done a couple of times before. This is always a ton of fun, especially sharing the stage with such great artists as Willie Nile, James Maddock, Joe Grushecky, Adam Ezra, Williams Honor and many more. For those not familiar, this is the annual blow-out to fight Parkinson's disease and other movement disorders. I lost my dad in 2023 and he suffered with Parkinson's for years. He was always such a strong badass - a man's man - and it was so hard to see him steadily decline, so anything that can help eradicate this horrible disease is okay with me. I hope you'll be able to come and support this worthy cause. Please see the Light Of Day website for more information ... As you can see from the photos, we jumped into Quarantunes again in a big way!

Quarantunes is back with a vengeance!

We really do love doin' these shows for y'all! With the winter upon us, we're gonna try and do at least one or two a month. But, since we're no longer quarantining, we need a new name! So, send along any and all suggestions and we'll announce a winner - there may be even a prize involved! ... We have a bunch of gigs this month at some fairly new spots for us. First up is Village Hall in South Orange. They have a great menu and it looks like a great spot. Also, we're back at the Logan Inn in New Hope, Pennsylvania in early February. We've played before and love it! Finally, we'll also be at an old favorite in early February - Hailey's Harp & Pub in Metuchen! It's an Irish pub and has a great vibe and clientele. We hope to see you at one of these spots in 2024! ... Have you checked out our YouTube channel? You can find it here: youtube.com/@blueamericana and you'll also find the video for our first single, "Hands Of A Working Man." The song - a tribute to my dad - is available for download at all of the usual spots - Spotify, Apple Music, iTunes; Amazon ... Excited to be playin' my brother Greg's new bar in Rogers, Arkansas this month. We'll be at Pub on the Bricks on the 12th and 13th.....

Christmas Quarantunes with festive headgear

THE JUKES: The Jukes will be resting in January - and is it any wonder? December was busy and the annual New Year's Eve hit at the Basie Center For The Arts is always exhausting! It's always fun to hit with the cats, even when we're not actually ringing in the new year. It was an early show again this year, but it's great to see so many familiar faces in the crowd. Buckle up, because there are plenty of shows in 2024 and we look forward to rocking everyone!

SHADOWLAND: Big thanks to everyone who traveled north after The Jukes' NYE show to see Shadowland in Morristown. We were part of the town's First Night celebration and it was a blast! We saw some old friends and made some new ones, as well. Shadowland will be releasing some more new music in the months to come, so please stay tuned!
