NEWSLETTER – SEPTEMBER 2024

Welcome to September! The damn summer just flew by. It was a beautiful summer, indeed, but seemed way too short. So here we are, back to the fall and I'm definitely not ready for it, but here it is. September is a busy month with many different things happening, some different performances, back to the college classes and preparing for Pig Gig 9, which is November 10 - some details below. Please be safe out there and be kind Glenn

GLENN & ORIA: Glenn & Oria have a few things this month...we are at The Stone House in Warren and Krewe in Jersey City at the beginning of the month, and other spots TBA, hopefully before this goes out. We have several songs ready for release and will probably just put them out as music because making videos takes way too much time and resources. Specifically, we will release Elroy's, which is a funky little toe tapper. Others are in the hopper just waiting, so we'll keep you posted. Please check us out on YouTube, Instagram, TikTok, our website and anywhere and everywhere else you can find us! Spread the word, please!

Rockin' the Stone Pony

SHADOWLAND: Shadowland has no gigs on the books, but we do have a couple of finished songs that as stated above, we will release and forego the video business. We have a new song - written by me and my good friend Stanley Schwartz - called "Back To The Blues Again," which might be the story of my life. It has Oria on it, the full band, along with the Asbury Jukes horns: Chris Anderson, John Isley and Neal Pawley. That tune will be comin' your way in September. Please listen, share and just maybe, it will generate enough dollars for a days' worth of cat food. Please keep checkin' my website and my Facebook page for the latest news and dates

With The Jukes at Blue Ocean

THE JUKES: Southside Johnny & The Asbury Jukes had an absolutely fantastic show at The Stone Pony Summer Stage. We love to wrap the summer up with that extravaganza. And it was an even greater show for me getting to hit with LaBamba & The Hubcaps - with Mark "The Love Man" Pender and Bobby Bandiera - opening up! It's always great to hang with those cats! Also, great to see Billy Walton and his band, who played inside after the Jukes show. The show always draws a big, crazy crowd and everyone has a blast ... The Jukes go right back at it in September, with a few dates up in Norwalk, Connecticut, Bethel, New York and Tarrytown, so come on out and take a fun ride with us.

PIG GIG 9: As I said above, we have a date for Pig Gig 9 and it's Sunday, November 10th! For the uninitiated, Pig Gig is a fundraiser for the Fibrolamellar Cancer Foundation in honor of my nephew, Jay Alexander, who lost his battle with this rare disease in 2011 at only 20 years old. All profits from the event go directly to the FCP for research and - hopefully - finding a cure, so other families don't have to experience the same heartbreak we did. As with past Pig Gigs, this ninth installment will be a celebration of Jay's life with music all day, all the food, beer and wine you can handle, really cool raffle items and tons of fun, all for the low admission price of $70. We are still working on the music lineup, but so far we have The Lonesome Pines, Glenn & Oria Band and Shadowland locked in. Tickets are available now at Ticketbud.com, so go get 'em! Pig Gig is a huge undertaking and we need sponsors! If you are interested, please reach out via the contact page at my website, www.glennalexander.com. Hope to see everyone at Pig Gig 9 on November 10th - Here's To Jay!!!
